Between the 23rd and 27th of March 2010 MEGRA, a trade fair that allows you to actively participate in the construction sector and activities related to it, will take place in Gornja Radgona - a meeting point of four countries. The fair takes pride in business and promotional efficiency and a rising international participation of exhibitors and visitors. In 2009 more than 460 exhibitors from 18 countries attracted a crowd of over 24.000 visitors to the 20.800m² showroom area.

The program of exhibitions is also complemented by specialized exhibitions, specialized lectures and matchmaking events; to underline new trends.

On March 25th MEGRA & Rational Use of Energy is offering, to all the participants, a presentation of the latest production, service and process innovations and useful information for the whole sector.

Set aside some time for active participation and establishment of new business contacts.
